

Mahatma Gandhi Vidyamandir's
M S G Arts, Science & Commerce College Malegaon Camp Dist. Nashik
Department of Physics

Study Tour Report

Place: Indian Space Research Centre, Bangalore

Date of Visit: 10-12 January 2019

No of participants: 27

The Department of Physics, M S G College Malegaon Camp Dist. Nashik was organized Educational Tour at Indian Space Research Centre (ISRO), Bangalore dated on 10-12 January 2019 for the M Sc Physics Students. The total 27 students were Participated in this Educational Tour. ISRO is one of the largest space agencies in the world. It develops application specific satellite products and tools for country. The students have visited to specific satellite products and tools such as Broadcast, communication, Weather, Geographic information system etc. Also students have visited to Visvesvaray Technological Museum and Jawaharlal Nehru Planetarium. All these laboratories related to Physics, Electronics and Telecommunication. The faculty of the Broadcasting and communication Department have giving the most useful information about the Space Research in this field. Also the students have raise some important questions related to Space Research is related to Physics. In this Visit, Prof U D Lad and Prof D B Sonawane have taken lot of efforts for making the educational Tour successful.

Head
Department of Physics